

The General William C. Westmoreland Chapter

Association of the United States Army

invites you to

Celebrate Armed Forces Day

Saturday Evening, May 18, 2019

Brigadier General Hanifan began his military career upon graduation from the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York in May of 1986. He served in various staff and command positions as an Intelligence Officer assigned to Infantry and Armored Divisions at Fort Lewis, Washington and Fort Hood, Texas.

Following 12 years of active Army service in August of 1998, General Hanifan became a member of Nevada's Army National Guard beginning his service as a Major. During the succeeding years he commanded at both the battalion and brigade level. He was promoted to brigadier general in 2013 and has served as the Commanding General of the Army National Guard until becoming the Assistant Adjutant General of the Joint Force Headquarters. Presently he is also the Deputy Commanding General (RC) of the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

Brigadier General Michael K. Hanifan

General Hanifan has earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from the United States Military Academy and a Master of Science Degree in Strategic Studies while attending the Army War College.

General Hanifan has successfully blended a military career with his civilian career working for Bently Nevada as a Program Manager.
